Kick-off Meeting of MIDISS Project Review Board

First MIDISS Project Review Board Meeting held on 27th May 2025

On 27th May 2025, the kick-off meeting of the MIDISS Project Review Board was held at the HPDP, marking an important milestone in the implementation of this EU-funded initiative. The Project Review Board brought together key stakeholders in Malta that are essential for the successful completion of the new Public Health IT Surveillance System of MIDISS.

After welcoming words from the Superintendent of Public Health and chairman to the board, Prof. Charmaine Gauci, the meeting outlined the role of the Board, presented the project's work packages, and highlighted upcoming activities requiring active involvement from the various sectors. Discussions addressed potential integration with national and EU-level data systems and key technical considerations, including data quality. The meeting concluded with stakeholders expressing valuable insights and strong support for the creation of an integrated IT surveillance system to enhance infectious disease monitoring in Malta.
